

Reunite Families

Day of Action

Unjust detention, unlawful travel bans, and other forms of repression tear families and loved ones apart. This Ramadan, join the Freedom Initiative's fight to #ReuniteFamilies by recording a short video of yourself and sharing it on social media on Wednesday, April 5 (U.N. INTERNATIONAL DAY OF CONSCIENCE), using the hashtag #ReuniteFamilies. Don't forget to tag the Freedom Initiative (@thefreedomi)!

---

Instructions:

Please record a short video of yourself (30 seconds or less), in which you:

Required:

Ask you followers to:

- Support the Freedom Initiative in its fight to #ReuniteFamilies this Ramadan.
- Follow the Freedom Initiative (@thefreedomi) to learn how you can help end wrongful detention in the Middle East and North Africa

See example

Optional:

Respond to one of two prompts:

- Send a message to a loved one who is unjustly detained or under an unlawful travel ban in Egypt or Saudi Arabia.
- "This Ramadan, I'm missing [insert loved one's name], who is [wrongfully detained/under travel ban/can't be with family this Ramadan] because of repression by the [Egyptian/Saudi government]"
- Send a message of solidarity to political prisoners and those trapped under unlawful travel bans in Egypt or Saudi Arabia who are unable to see their families this Ramadan.
- "I'm standing in solidarity with [political prisoners/individuals affected by unlawful travel bans/victims of transnational repression] who have been torn apart from their families." See example

---

Additional instructions:

- Make sure to hold the camera vertically and find a quiet place to record. If you can, ask a friend to record you.
- Don't forget to end the video with #ReuniteFamilies, tag FI or collaborate with us on Instagram, and NOMINATE A FRIEND TO RECORD A VIDEO AND TAG THEM
- Feel free to record in Arabic as long as you use #ReuniteFamilies

